Town council backs beach hut tenants

ANGRY Seaton town councillors have demanded that East Devon District Council (EDDC) suspends its ongoing beach hut reform process.

Seaton Town Council will also hold its own consultation to build a case, and liaise with other affected towns to try and form a united front.

As reported last week, EDDC wants to rip up current deals and auction five-year beach hut leases on the open market instead.

Rolling contracts

Beach huts are currently let on a rolling contract which means tenants automatically get to rent them every year until they no longer wish to do so.

The auction proposal has been met with passionate opposition; one argument against it being that it would price out locals and open the market up for more affluent people from outside the area.

Several beach hut tenants attended Seaton Town Council on Monday, June 8th, demanding support from councillors.

That is precisely what they got.

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

Deputy Mayor Peter Burrows said about the proposal: "It is ill conceived and totally unworkable."

"I can understand why the proposals came out after the election. I suggest we tell EDDC we are totally opposed to it."

Councillor Marcus Hartnell complained the town council had received no reply from EDDC when enquiring about taking over the beach huts, and added: "I would propose we hold a public consultation before getting our response in."

Councillor Dawn Squire suggested the town council liaises with other affected towns to form "a united front".

Councillor Hartnell added: "If we just hold a listening event, I think that is enough. We could put together a strong document because we have done our own research."

"It is not right what they are proposing and we need to say that."

Consultation

EDDC is currently consulting with beach hut tenants, but the consultation has been heavily criticised for not offering a status quo option.

Seaton Town Council agreed to hold its own consultation exercise, of which details will be announced in due course.

It was also agreed to liaise with other affected towns, and demand that EDDC suspends the beach hut reform process.

The EDDC consultation will conclude on July 13th, after which the results will be analysed.

■ FOUNDING members of the fledgling Friends of Seaton Library (to be known as FOS-els), held a combined coffee morning, book sale and recruitment event on Friday, June 12th.

About ten people set up a steering group, and the first formal meeting will be at the library on Friday, July 2nd at 2pm.

One aim is to involve the local community with the library even more.

One of the members, library staff member Pene Davis, said: "There are lots of extras we could do, and the first aim is to buy Lego and start a Lego club for children."

There are also plans to organise computer courses and fundraise for audio equipment for housebound people.

Anyone interested in joining can pop into the library for more information or attend the meeting on July 2nd. The joining fee is £1.

Plans for more homes on land set aside for employment

NEGOTIATIONS are under way to accommodate up to 175 dwellings on a site initially earmarked as employment land on the CLR site in Crewkerne.

South Somerset District Council (SSDC) gave planning permission for "a comprehensive mixed-use development" with 525 dwellings, employment land, a primary school, community facilities, playing fields, parkland, landscaping and associated infrastructure at the key site in January 2011. Permission was given subject to planning obligations, but the applicant would now like to change some aspects of the agreement.

A report prepared for SSDC's Area West meeting on Wednesday, June 17th, said: "The agreed obligations reflected the district valuer's then advice that the development, including the provision of the link road, the school site, landscaped areas and employment land was only viable with 17.5 per cent affordable houses (all for rent) and circa £8.6million towards planning obligations.

"The applicant believes that in the current market, the approved scheme is now unviable."

From the editor's chair The battle lines are drawn

WHEN it comes to planning applications the adjoining parishes of Uplyme and Lyme Regis have clashed on numerous occasions.

But it would seem that the latest attempt to build new homes on land, owned by the All-husen family, between Shire Lane and Gore Lane, north of the A352 in the parish of Uplyme, may well see the two communities joining forces to block the development.

Public consultation on plans to build 120 new homes of mixed size and tenure has been extended to June 23rd.

To date, more than 100 letters have been received by East Devon District Council – all opposed and none in favour.

The site is actually closer to Lyme Regis than the village of Uplyme but it is most definitely in Devon.

A planning meeting in neighbouring Lyme last week attracted a crowded public gallery, mainly with those who live near the site.

One person commented that if the plans were approved it would mean "the end of East Devon as we know it". Not sure that the people of Exmouth would be too bothered but it indicated just how strongly local residents feel about this development.

How worried should they be? The site falls outside the agreed building line for both Lyme and Uplyme and is not included, I understand, in the five-year land supply agreed by the two neighbouring planning authorities – East Devon and West Dorset.

Both authorities agree that the site is not suitable for a major development – and 120 new houses comes under the category of "major".

The fact the developers, Hallam Land Management, have said that up to 150 per cent of the proposed homes will be "affordable", which is likely to be welcomed by the Lyme council.

The plans also include the retention and enhancement of the current park and ride, including toilets, which will also be attractive to Lyme.

However, I suspect Uplyme will take a more trenchant view. They may well see there is little benefit to their village and there are major concerns about the effect of such a large development on the rural landscape local infrastructure.

SIDMOUTH

Secret sponsor pays to replace bus shelter

A MYSTERIOUS benefactor has stepped forward with a generous donation to replace the burned-out bus shelter in Sidmouth town centre.

The anonymous sponsor appeared last week offering almost £7,000 – from his own pocket – to pay for a brand new shelter at the Triangle.

The shelter was seriously damaged by fire on Boxing Day last year and had been targeted in a suspected arson attack the previous January.

Budget cuts have left East Devon District Council struggling to replace the shelter, and only a few days ago officers took the decision, on safety grounds, to remove it altogether.

But the shelter will be replaced within a matter of weeks after a "fairly godperson" came forward with the cash.

The kind-hearted resident said: "It's hard to find good causes to give money to, but Sidmouth is a beautiful place and I love living here."

HONITON

Concerns over Turks Head redesign

A LONG-AWAITED redesign of Honiton's notorious Turks Head junction could put pedestrians in even greater danger of a serious accident despite efforts to improve safety, a councillor has warned.

Roy Coombs, chairman of the town council's planning committee, said the proposed new layout, which includes a mini roundabout with a crossing island on Turks Head Lane, would be a "recipe for disaster" for pedestrians if it goes ahead.

Highways experts at Devon County Council have produced plans for a £500,000 redesign of the junction, which has long been viewed as one of Honiton's worst accident blackspots.

Residents living near to the junction have repeatedly called for action to slow traffic.

Town councillors

opted to support the plans but asked for regular reviews of pedestrian safety issues.

OTTERY ST MARY Bus service is saved... for three days a week

OTTERY St Mary's threatened town bus service is to be retained for three days a week on a temporary basis, after county council transport chiefs changed their plans to axe the service.

The essential town link, which serves as a lifeline to many elderly residents, will continue to operate for the rest of the financial year, subject to final approval next month.

Proposals to cut the service entirely were made public earlier this year as Devon County Council outlined £1.7million worth of savings to its public transport budget.

But following consultation with bus users, the council has amended its plans and is now prepared to pay for the continuation of the 381 on Mondays and Thursdays.

Ottery's county council ward member Claire Wright has offered to cover the cost of a third day using money from her designated locality budget.

While still a significant reduction from the six days a week service that was previously provided in partnership with Sainsbury's, Ottery's bus users will welcome the amended plans having faced losing the service entirely.

A spokesman for the county council confirmed the Ottery town bus will be funded for three days a week for the remainder of the financial year but a community solution may be required at a later stage.

Double celebration for Lions

by Ian Barradale

SEATON and District Lions Club had a double celebration on Saturday, June 13th. Held at Seaton Town Hall they awarded three of the latest Young Leaders in Service with their Gold Award for achieving 100 hours of community service.

The trio – Lauren Wiltshire, Nicholas Fisher and Isabella Synek Herd – were joined by their friends, families, well wishers and members of Seaton and District Lions Club who were there to watch Seaton Mayor Tony Woodman present the three Young Leaders with their Certificates, Gold Award badges, YLis hooded tops and £10 gift vouchers.

Lion Janine Barradale applauded the three three Young Leaders, telling the audience how each of the three had built up their 100 hours of service in the community.

Seaton Mayor Tony Woodman said how refreshing it was that when so many young people received bad publicity for their actions, Seaton young people were a credit to the community and how pleased he was to see these three Young Leaders in Service receive their awards.

He went on to thank Seaton and District Lions Club for setting up this worthwhile initiative to encourage the young people of the town.

With the presentations to the Young Leaders in Service over, the audience moved outside into the porch of Seaton Town Hall.

Recently fixed to the wall of the porch is a new emergency defibrillator donated to Seaton by the Lions Club.

After an attention-grabbing cry by Seaton Town Crier David Craner, Lion president Ian Barradale explained that the donation of the emergency defibrillator was originally the goal of former President, Kevin Frost, which had taken months of effort by the Lions to achieve.

SEATON and District Lions Club president Ian Barradale with Seaton Mayor Tony Woodman receiving the defibrillator from President Kevin Frost and Lion John Barrington-Rowell

The defibrillator cost £3,000 to buy and install and the money was raised through this year's Lions Christmas Santa Float collection and other initiatives.

It is kept in the porch of Seaton Town Hall in a secure tamper proof cabinet. The door of the cabinet is opened when a 999 call is made to the South West Ambulance Service.

This gives access to the defibrillator which can then be taken to where it is needed. When switched on the defibrillator 'talks' to whoever is using it giving them the instructions they need to operate it.

The town mayor received the defibrillator on the behalf of the local community once more praising the Lions for their work in the community and looking forward to working with them in the future.

Seeking Wally in Seaton

THE children's book character 'Where's Wally?' will be visiting local businesses in Seaton to mark Independent Bookshop Week, starting June 20th.

From Owl and Pyramid on Fore Street to New Look News on Harbour Road, from Paper-chain on Beer Road to the Library on Queen Street, Wally can be found at lots of local businesses.

Anyone who wants to join in can pick up a "Find Wally" search list, naming the businesses involved (including With a Gee Glass Art, Organic Worx, Pebbles, and more), and collect an "I Found Wally Card" when they spot the character.

Participants can then hand the cards in at Owl and Pyramid to win stickers, posters and an entry for larger prizes (pictured) to be drawn at a Where's Wally Party on July 25th.

Wally, the creation of Martin Handford, swept the globe in 1987, going on to sell more than 60 million copies.

In celebration of Wally's longevity and popularity, Walker Books is teaming up with the Booksellers Association's Indiebound 'Get Local' campaign, and independent bookshops nationwide, to encourage people to visit local businesses. There is no charge to participate, and the game lasts throughout Independent Bookshop week and continues until July 25th, giving plenty of opportunity to explore Seaton's local independent shops.

For more information about searching for Wally in Seaton, call Jenny at Owl and Pyramid on 01297 598030 or email owl.pyramid@yahoo.com.

Maiden leap for 80-year-old

A KILMINGTON octogenarian is preparing for her maiden skydive, in aid of Hospiscare.

Claudette Bowden, who turned 80 on April 1st, will be strapped to an instructor when throwing herself out of an airplane at 15,000 feet above Dunkeswell on June 20th.

The stunt is part of Hospiscare's participation in a world record attempt for the most number of people making a skydive in one day.

Skydive UK, based at Dunkeswell, broke the record last year by completing 281 jumps but lost the title to a team of Americans who managed a total of 286.

Now the school is bidding to wrestle back the record, aiming for an astonishing 333 consecutive jumps.

Claudette's daughter Sharon works for Hospiscare, which is how the former heard about the attempt and associated fundraising.

When asked why she decided to do a skydive instead of fundraising by staging, let's say, a coffee morning, she replied: "I just fancy it."

"My daughter is all for it but my sons are not happy about it – but they sponsored me, and that is the main thing."

Her GP signed a certificate saying Claudette is fit for the skydive, telling her to enjoy herself and that he is jealous.

Tongue in cheek, Claudette added: "Every ache and pain from now on, I won't see the doctor. He may say I'm not fit enough."

Anyone interested in sponsoring Claudette can e-mail her at bowdenclaudette@gmail.com Hospiscare fundraiser Celia Wilkinson said: "We are really excited to be part of the record attempt because, on top of the unforgettable experience of jumping 15,000 feet out of a plane, our fantastic supporters will get the chance to be in the record books which is a once in a lifetime opportunity."

MBE for Jo Pavey

EAST Devon's record-breaking runner Jo Pavey has been made an MBE in the Queen's Birthday Honours.

Jo, 41, who was born in Honiton and educated at the King's School in Ottery St Mary, was awarded the honour for services to athletics.

The royal recognition caps a remarkable 12 months for the Exeter Harrier, who became the oldest European 10,000m champion last August – just 10 months after giving birth to her second child. She said she was surprised to hear that she had been awarded the MBE but that it was a "huge honour".

Tea bar marks Herbal Medicine Week

MEDICAL herbalist Jayne Palmer of Roots To Health is putting on a special tea bar in Honiton on Saturday, June 20th, to mark the start of Herbal Medicine Week, organised by the Exeter-based National Institute of Medical Herbalists.

Herbal Medicine Week is held in June each year to coincide with Midsummer's Day, when a wide range of medicinal plants can be found.

Jayne is inviting people to drop in for a free day of tea-tasting to find out about the benefits of herbal beverages and how they can be used to treat common ailments and other health issues. Roots To Health is also offering a 20 per cent discount to all new clients this week and free drop-in sessions.

Jayne says: "Many people don't realise that herbs have been used since the beginning of time as a remedy for ailments. As a medical herbalist, I can help treat a wide range of conditions physical and emotional. People who've never tried herbal medicine before are often amazed by the power of plants and how well herbs work!

"This is a great opportunity for people to try a variety of herbal teas, and find out more about the many uses of herbal medicine."

The event is being held from 12–4pm at the Chiropactic Health Centre at 193 Honiton High Street. A selection of dried and fresh herbal preparations will be available to buy.

New councillor pledges priority for Millwey Rise road problems

NEWLY elected district councillor Ian Hall brought some big county council guns to Millwey Rise in an attempt to have roads and pavements fixed.

Councillor Hall, a Millwey Rise native, said: "People brought it to my attention before I was elected."

After his election win in May, he is now in a position to try to do something about the problems.

Councillor Hall toured the estate with local county councillor Andrew Moulding and Devon County Council Cabinet Member for Highway Management Stuart Hughes, pointing out a catalogue of problems including potholes, cracked pavements and possible subsidence.

One stretch of road, for example, appears to have been damaged by heavy vehicles when houses were built at the top of the estate, potentially putting both road users and vehicles at risk of injury or damage.

Councillor Hall said: "There are areas of Millwey that I would say are damaging vehicles."

"I know money is limited, but my paramount aim is to make it [the highway] safe."

After the tour, councillor Hughes said: "You can only spend so much, but if it can be done over a few years it would be good and improve the quality of life for residents."

Councillor Moulding said that they will work with officers, draw up a list and then prioritise problems listed.

Councillor Hall concluded: "There are people who are supporting me in what I'm trying to achieve for the area."

"The event will be followed by a tug of war competition and a barn disco from 8pm."

"This is a great event with plenty to watch and entertain adults and children of all ages."

But those interested in taking part must hurry as team entries close on June 20th, June.

The Project stages 'Summer Spectacular'

AXMINSTER Guildhall was the venue for The Project's fundraising Summer Spectacular on Saturday, June 6th.

The Project is a charitable organisation supporting young people with mental health issues plus their parents/carers.

Founder Debbie Humberstone said about the Summer Spectacular: "It was a night of entertainment, with live music provided by people connected with The Project in all sorts of ways – young people who attend our sessions, volunteers and staff, supporters and local singing groups who have raised money for us over the past year or so."

"Magician Grant Jones walked around the room from table to table doing amazing card tricks which baffled everyone."

The event was sponsored by Frank Property of Seaton, and Debbie added: "We had expected around 100 people to attend, but ended up with around 170-180 people turning up, which was fantastic."

"The room was set up cabaret-style, and we were only just able to fit everyone in, with half a dozen people ending up sitting on the balcony."

"There was an auction, run by local auctioneer Graham Barton, of Homes Under The Hammer fame, whose entertaining banter got the crowd going, and raised over £540, which added to the total raised on the night of £3,215."

"So many local businesses and individuals donated prizes, it's impossible to thank them

Supercar tryouts for Arada guests

A FLEET of ten high performance cars graced the streets of Millway Rise Industrial Estate in Axminster when stove-maker Arada held its annual dealer event.

Following on from the success of last year's classic car event, the Axminster-based stove manufacturer stepped it up a gear when hosting 20 of their distributors and giving them the opportunity to drive ten impressive sports cars.

The stunning collection of cars included a Nissan GT-R, Ferrari F430, Audi R8, Aston Martin DB9, limited edition Mustang and a bright yellow Lamborghini Gallardo Spyder.

Arada's guests enjoyed the cars for two days and drove as far as Weymouth.

The event finished with a tour around Arada's state-of-the-art factory where they make their hand-crafted wood burning and multi fuel stoves and an introduction to the company's new range of products for 2015's winter season.

Commercial director Mark Brettell said: "As an event, this was a hugely successful few days and thanks go to everyone who has helped with this.

"All of our visitors were very impressed by the factory and the staff, commenting that this is the cleanest and best organised factory they have visited which is fantastic feedback considering many had visited factories not just in the UK but in Europe too.

"It has been great to show our distributors how we handcraft our British stoves on site in Axminster and also to build bonds and stronger relationships with our retailers for the future."

Queen's birthday honours

SIR Neville Marriner became a Companion of Honour (CH) for services to music in the Birthday 2015 Honours Lists.

Sir Neville, who lives at Alston, near Axminster, is one of the greatest British conductors with almost 600 recordings of at least 1,000 pieces of 18th and 19th century music and about 50 public concerts a year.

Sir Neville is also a patron of Axminster Heritage.

Katherine Laing, from Dalwood, near Axminster, was named in the list for services to the community in Dalwood and received a BEM.

Magna Carta exhibition

AN exhibition at Axminster Library marks the rededication of Magna Carta by the Queen.

Entitled Magna Carta: Truth and Myth, it features a copy of the original great charter along with a translation of all 63 clauses and information about the making of the charter and subsequent history.

There are exhibits for children including a pop-up medieval castle, knights, a shield and crown and competitions.

Presenter Tony Simpson said:

"As well as showing the significance of the charter, the first real attempt to check the enormous powers of the King, I have tried to trace the links with subsequent freedom struggles and the rights we have today."

The exhibition will be in Axminster until Saturday, June 27th.

It will then go to the Beehive, Honiton, and will be available for local schools and organisations.

Anyone interested in hosting the exhibition can contact Mr Simpson on 01404 548228.

School students become word millionaires

FOUR pupils at St Mary's Primary School in Axminster are word millionaires, writes Anders Larsson.

Olivia Church has hit the two million-word mark on the Accelerated Reader programme whilst Lucy Coddington, Chirathi Nanayakkara and Talia Hutchings have reached the first landmark of one million words.

English co-ordinator Louise Perks said: "They have to read the books and log on to the quizzing website with their usernames and passwords in order to take a quiz on the book they have read.

"The software keeps a running total of the books they have read and how many words there are in each book.

"Pupils are making super progress in reading at St Mary's and are very enthusiastic about using our school library and Axminster Library."

Beer Parish Council embraces social media

BEER Parish Council has launched its own Facebook and Twitter accounts.

New councillor Louise Vine has taken on the responsibility of setting up the service and ensuring it is updated regularly not only to keep local people informed of council business but also key events in the village.

"A lot of people use Facebook and Twitter now but the key thing is to update it frequently so people keep looking to see what is happening," said Councillor Vine.

While some of the more established members of the council admit they have yet to tackle the new means of communication chairman Martin Richards said it was an excellent innovation.

"A lot of people communicate by Facebook and Twitter now so I think it is a very good thing that we are using it as council," said Councillor Richards.

"If it means getting our message out better and more people seeing it than by traditional methods like leaflets then it has to be a good thing. It is the way forward."

The council currently publishes a newsletter in the monthly St Michael's Beer Parish News but Councillor Richards agrees that may only reach a certain section of the local population.

"Perhaps when leaflets or newsletters come through the door the parents have a look but the youngsters don't bother," added Councillor Richards.

"They are more likely to look at Facebook or Twitter so this is a better way of getting young people involved and informed.

"It is also a good way of people letting us know what they think and I reckon we will probably get a better response from these means that expecting people to turn up to council meeting.

"It is a great idea that has come from one of our new councillors and we have nothing to lose by giving it a go."

The event was held in Colyford Memorial Hall and was packed with local residents, many brought from care homes around the area, who enjoyed tucking into a traditional afternoon tea of sandwiches and cakes. Winston's music marathon raises more than £1,000

A 12-HOUR music marathon at Winstons in Seaton raised more than £1,100 for the RNLI.

The event was held on May 23rd, and RNLI Seaton Beer and District branch secretary Wendy Cummins was full of praise for everyone who helped make it such a success.

She said: "The total profit was £1,176, for which we the branch volunteers and RNLI headquarters are very grateful. A great big thank you is extended to Irene, Derek and all the Winstons staff. "To Mandy and Steve Graham for all their help and organisation. And to Chris Oakes, a very big thank you for putting in so much work into making the 12 hours such a success for which the branch is very grateful.

"Thank you to the total of 11 singers and bands who gave their time for free.

"During the afternoon, Cathy Rimer from Buxton in Derbyshire sang alone in acapella-style a very moving tribute that she had written on a visit to Mousehole about the crew and Penlee Lifeboat. We thank the Winstons customers for supporting the event and the RNLI.

"There were over twenty prizes in the mega raffle with prizes donated by local and national businesses and tourist attractions.

"The money raised will be re-directed to Burnham-on-Sea, to help provide a new lifeboat costing £41,000."

She also said that the branch is looking for volunteers to help at various events and at the shop in Beer. For further details, call 01297 23040.

The collection was held by the Seaton, Beer and district branch.

Branch secretary Wendy Cummins said: "On Friday May 29th we collected £351.60 and on Saturday May 30th we collected £474.65.

Royal theme for charity lunch

A 'PEEK behind royal doors' is the enticing tagline for a charity lunch to be held at Beer Sailing Club next month.

Val Bugden-Cawsey is the guest speaker for the Ladies Lunch on Wednesday, July 22nd, which has organised by Annie Boalch and Angie Cromwell to raise funds for Cancer Research UK.

Mrs Bugden-Cawsey worked for HRH Anne, the Princess Royal and will be giving a talk on the theme: 'The life and times of a professional caterer - giving a peek behind the royal doors'.

"We thought it would be a nice social occasion for ladies to get together and listen to a very humorous speaker and maybe hear some interesting anecdotes," said Annie.

"It will also be one of our main fundraisers of the year for Cancer Research UK and all proceeds will go to them."

Tickets, which cost £15, are limited to the first 60 and interest has already been brisk. Included in the price will be coffee and biscuits on arrival at 10.30am, followed by a hearty lunch of fish and chips and homemade puddings.

The bar will be open and a raffle will also be held to help boost the cause.

Anyone interested in purchasing tickets should contact Annie on either 01297 21305 or 07968 167136.

Colyton celebrates its rebellious history

■ MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT: The Chantry Kingers led by parish councillor Ken Clifford (second from right)

■ ON THE MARCH: The King's malitia, played by the Taunton Garrison, arrive in town

by Francesca Evans
francesca@pemedial.co.uk

COLYTON lived up to its nickname of the "most rebellious town in Devon" on Saturday as residents and visitors were taken back in time to 1685.

The re-enactment of the Monmouth Rebellion has been months in the planning and was deemed a huge success by organisers from the Promote Colyton group, after hundreds gathered in the town centre to watch the dramatic scenes unfold.

Residents in period costume rode into town on horseback, including parish council chairman Andrew Parr, who announced the arrival of the Duke of Monmouth in Lyme Regis. The King's malitia, played by the Taunton Garrison, arrived to warn residents not to join Monmouth's cause, but the rebels marched out of town to support him and were later sentenced following the arrival of Judge Jeffreys.

A whole day of events supported the re-enactment scenes, including a market of local crafts, music from the Chantry Kingers led by parish councillor Ken Clifford, a Tudor dance group, and a living history camp and demonstrations by the Taunton Garrison.

Colyton Primary School also held a week of special events in the lead up to the big day, including painting a mural and holding a "rebellion feast".

The events marked the 330th anniversary of the Monmouth Rebellion, during which 105 men from Colyton joined the protestant Duke's campaign to overthrow the Catholic King James II. Out of the 105, 23 were transported to the West Indies into slavery, 14 were executed including two who were publicly hanged in the town, while others died in battle or made successful escapes.

■ NEW RECRUITS: Local youngsters took part in a pike drill with the Taunton Garrison

■ DRESSED TO IMPRESS: Residents got into the spirit of the event and dressed in period costume

CRANBERRIES LUXURY HIDEAWAY

Pulman's girls pampered from head to toe!

MYSELF and a few of the other Pulman's View girls were lucky enough to exchange a usual day in the office for a luxury spa break at Cranberries Hideaway in Kilmington last week.

Although we tried to convince our colleagues this was no "jolly" and was "strictly for work purposes only", it was hard to even believe ourselves as we sank into the relaxing bubbles of the hot tub, sipped on Prosecco and let the stresses of work fade away with our spa treatments.

I had never been to Cranberries before but had heard lots of good reports from friends and family, and I was not disappointed as we pulled into the renovated 18th century dairy farm and soaked in the stunning views of the rolling East Devon countryside.

Set in over 100 acres of private land, owner Steve Little and general manager Verity Charles have renovated the stone barns at Cranberries to create self-catering and bed and breakfast accommodation of the highest standards, as well as a wedding venue with unrivalled views of the area and luxury honeymoon suite.

Steve and Verity greeted us with a warm welcome before giving us a tour of the site, and we were spoilt for choice when it came to picking our rooms for that night, each beautifully decorated with comfy beds, modern en suite bathrooms and some even with their own free-standing bathtubs in the bedrooms.

To top it off, Cranberries has recently opened its Hideaway Spa offering a wide range of treatments using high quality brands, including Elemis, the leading British spa and skincare brand; Crystal Clear skin rejuvenation technology; Jane Iredale mineral makeup; St Tropez tanning products and OPI hand and foot treatments.

As well as favourite spa and beauty treatments, the Hideaway Spa includes a jacuzzi bath and steam showers for individual use and will soon be branching out into more specialist treatments, such as laser hair and tattoo removal.

Spa manager Jessica and her team showed real enthusiasm for their work and spoke passionately about the products used. Their professionalism, expertise and the relaxing atmosphere put us completely at ease.

In the morning, we were each treated to a stress-busting back massage and a refreshing facial using the delightfully-fragranced Elemis range and, after tucking into a delicious buffet lunch and one (or two!) more glasses of Prosecco, it was back to the spa for manicures and pedicures leaving us completely pampered from head to toe.

After all that hard work it was time to chill out in one of Cranberries' many hot tubs and time seemed to slip away as we looked out over the surrounding countryside – a view you just cannot get bored of. Eventually we pulled ourselves away for dinner before a peaceful night's sleep.

The hot tubs are a favourite feature for visiting hen parties, which have quickly become a specialty of Cranberries thanks to the flexible range of special activities on offer, meaning each party can be tailored to suit every type of "hen".

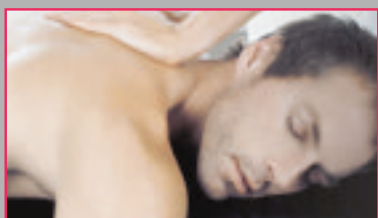

The rural getaway – with accommodation ranging from rooms for individuals, couples or families up to renovated barns sleeping 16 – has also become a popular destination for larger corporate parties and, of course, is now one of the favourite wedding venues of the area.

And Cranberries' success is surely only set to soar further as renovation continues with plans to further expand the spa facilities and open a restaurant with hearty, homemade meals as its staple.

So if you're looking for a quick beauty fix or a head to toe makeover, there can be few finer settings for a relaxing day out than Cranberries Luxury Hideaway.

Bluebells and angels' fishing rods in Colyton

THE bluebells may be over at Blackbury Camp but they will be blooming again in Colyton at the town's Leisure Painters' annual Exhibition, which opens on Thursday, June 18th at 2pm.

The small art club spends two days a month in the spring and summer painting together outside – occasionally in their own town with its handsome church and varied architecture – from Tudor and Jacobean alongside ancient cottages and elegant early Victorian houses.

Further afield this spring they have been tempted by the cliffs at Beer Head from Seaton, Widworthy Church and of course Blackbury Camp for the bluebells.

There will be work from the various projects and challenges that the Painters undertake in the colder months and you may find a picture or two from their early June outing to Wareham.

The results – and much more – will be on show in the St. John Hall (opposite the bike shop and next door but one to the Methodist Church) in King Street.

Craft work, ceramics and sculpture will be among the exhibits and a rather special oil painting by Linde Hillier will be the major raffle prize. Showing the delightfully named Angel's Fishing Rods (Dierama or Wandflower) the painting is unusual in that it is both naturalistic and semi-abstract in the patterning of the negative spaces between the rods. This will be Linde's last CLP Exhibition as she and her potter husband Terry soon move to Weymouth to be near their son.

Started in 1980 by half a dozen enthusiastic amateur artists, newly retired, Colyton Leisure Painters remains a small group but hopes that new incoming Colytonians will join to replace those who move to be nearer their families.

Among the talented work will be sparkling watercolours by Chairman David Clarke, strong oils by June Clarke, acrylics by Joan Garner and mixed media and lots of crafts by Kay Clive-Frances.

There will be cards to buy, demonstrations to watch – including lace making by Diana Walters – and, to make complete you visit, home-made cakes will be served with the teas and coffees.

Drop in – between 2 and 5pm on Thursday 18th and between 10am to 5pm on Friday and Saturday, June 19th and 20th.

INSPIRING WOMEN

Women's Institutes ROUND UP

AXE RIVER

AXE River WI members came dressed in purple for the May meeting as the guest speaker was Val Sitherland.

Val gave a very witty and amusing, if not thought provoking, talk about 'Growing Old Disgracefully' which had members giggling and nodding their heads in agreement.

During the business meeting the programme of events was discussed with various local club outings planned, ie Blackberry Honey Farm for a cream tea and a visit to Burrow Gardens, even a visit to a sausage factory to make sausages with drinks at a local establishment afterwards.

Axe River WI will also be hosting their first ever Group Meeting at the URC Hall, Chard Road Axminster, on Tuesday, July 7th, so preparations are underway to provide both food and entertainment for other visiting WIs within the locality.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, 16th June, 7.30pm to 9.30pm at the Methodist Church Hall, Lyme Road, Axminster. The guest is Kate Norbury speaking on 'Five men in my life'. The members' exhibition is to bring along a family heirloom for all to see.

If you wish to join or require further information, please contact President Ann Keane on 01297 59895.

KILMINGTON

APOLOGIES for absence were read when Kilmington WI met in May.

Arising from that the Axe Vale festival entry was discussed and Christine, Phyllis and Louise will work on that. Calendars and diaries for 2016 should be ordered.

Mo from Devon Free Wheelers arrived and chatted informally answering questions. He collected a cheque for £350 raised from the recent Ploughman's and Dessert Lunch. Photos were taken by Kathy.

Christine reported on the Spring Council meeting at Torquay at which Barbara was Highly Commended for her entry into the Federation competition for a greetings card. Flower of the month was won jointly by Christine and Joy with Phyllis second. Louise is to organise a Mystery Trip for the branch in August.

The annual meeting then began and Mary proposed Joy to be Chairman again and the committee will stay the same. Joy thanked everyone for their work during the year. After delicious refreshments the meeting closed at 9.15.

Sidmouth club's floral 'passport to adventure'

SHEILA Baker began Sidmouth Flower Arrangement Club's May meeting with congratulations to all seven members who took part in the Devon County Show. Everyone gained one or more awards and the club entry received two trophies.

"Passport to Adventure" was Katherine Kears title for her demonstration.

The inspiration came from the impressive containers she used and the wonderful plant material. There was a large, round African type copper pot filled with papyrus grasses and hot reds and oranges.

A tall oval container decorated with mother of pearl was decorated with a smallish placement of flowers on the top woven through decorative wire mesh and looked quite theatrical when joined by two smaller similar pieces.

A design based on the Victorian love of stumperies included some beautiful foliage, calla lilies and interesting grasses. Katherine also relayed fascinating facts about the adventures of the plant hunters of that era to whom we owe so much for our present garden plants.

An eastern inspired arrangement came next, based on paper covered globes, in cool greens and cream colours and a parallel multi part contemporary design using sunflowers, alliums and bright pink roses. As a finale Katherine created a romantic bridal bouquet in pale pinks with dendrobium orchids, clematis and roses. Having done this she unveiled a complete metal archway at the rear of the stage ready decorated and placed the bouquet at the centre of the design; really lovely.

The club was certainly treated to a national demonstrator quality afternoon of superb flower arranging from a very charming and entertaining lady.

Summer of Love 'strikes a chord' with Chardstock

A CHARDSTOCK landlord has been praised for handing his pub over to his local community for a major fundraising event.

The hippy-themed Summer of Love Party was put together by the team behind Chardstock's annual Street Fayre to raise money for Hospiscare and Axminster-based counselling charity ARC.

It was run in memory of Ray Smith, a former vice-chairman of Street Fayre and local rock musician, who died of cancer in February.

Both charities supported Mr Smith and his family.

Dominic Dixon, who runs The George Inn, handed over the pub's courtyard, skittle alley and garden to the event, which is estimated to have raised a total of about £1,500.

Mr Dixon even allowed his pub to be wrapped in flowers for the day, cutting and hand-painting around 60 plywood daisies, which were festooned from ropes around the pub.

More than 20 musicians from as far apart as Exeter and Norwich played free of charge for around 11 hours in the event on Saturday, June 6th.

They included young Devon singer-songwriters Holly Morwenna and Aaron Samuel, who often perform benefit gigs as part of the #TeensSupport-Hospice fundraising group.

Norwich party-rock band Stone Soda made a 600-mile round trip to headline the event.

Lead guitarist Neil Thomas is the nephew of Street Fayre team member and Summer of Love organiser Mick Whitworth, whose own band, The Window Trees, also played on Saturday.

Mr Whitworth, a former band mate of Ray Smith, said: "It was hugely moving that so many musicians were prepared to give up their time for ARC and Axminster.

"The whole event really seemed to strike a chord with our community – the place was packed from mid-afternoon, and people were digging deep to put cash into our collecting boxes."

Lyme Bay Winery, Portlebay Popcorn and Luscombe Drinks were among the Devon firms who provided free stock to support the Summer of Love party.

■ CIRCULAR: Hula hoop performer Julia Harley dancing to The Window Trees

■ HAWKCHURCH C of E Primary School have reached their fundraising target for new reading books, thanks to a generous donation from local farmer Mr Gilbert Churchill.

The amount raised by a combination of parents fundraising and donations since January is more than £800. Children are already enjoying reading some of the new books that have been purchased.

Mr Churchill, in conjunction with Lightsource, installed solar panels on his farm two years ago. They generate enough green electricity annually to power 1,285 average homes which, in local terms, is about half of the homes in Axminster.

He said: "I am very pleased that I am able to help our local primary school and I know that these books will encourage the children to read now and well into the future."

treatment for cancer. Since its inception in 2006, the charity has helped thousands of children by supplying beautiful, real hair wigs.

The charity constantly has to find supplies of real hair and its website (www.littleprincesses.org.uk) invites people to donate their own hair.

Carrie takes up the story: "I was told

■ CARRIE Southwell before and after her haircut about the appeal and wanted to do something to help. I was told how long it took to grow your hair. After months of trying it was, at last, long enough."

Carrie and the team at the Fairwater are now going much further to raise funds with a series of coffee mornings arranged at the Fairwater. All money raised goes to the charity.

Use or lose our 'fantastic' X53 bus service

■ AS a regular user of the X53 Jurassic Coaster bus service which runs from Weymouth to Exeter, I was pleased to hear that the new Summer timetable introduced from May 3rd has a number of enhancements.

Aside from the early service arriving at Exeter Bus Station by 8.30am, there is now an additional return service, with the last one now leaving Exeter Bus Station at 7.20pm. In addition to this, there is the welcome return of the Sunday service.

Together with the cost of a FirstWeek ticket remaining unchanged at £20 and the cost of a one-day Family ticket being £17.50, which covers two adults and up to three children, these changes are much welcomed by me on this fantastic cross-county bus service.

I really cannot understand why more people from Seaton and along the A3052 corridor towards Exeter are not using this bus service more rather than driving in to work or doing the school run and contributing to the daily early morning gridlock in the vicinity of Clyst St Mary, Sowton and Countess Wear. After all, fifty people driving fifty cars creates far more congestion than fifty people sat onboard one bus.

We should all remember this bus service does not receive any financial assistance from either Dorset or Devon County Councils and it is run on a purely commercial basis.

So why don't we all make the effort to use this valuable asset rather than potentially lose it, should First Hampshire & Dorset one day find it is commercially unviable to operate and makes the decision to either withdraw it or restrict its route as far afield as Lyme Regis only. Let's hope this never happens.

Unless of course, our newly elected Government actually recognises the importance of bus services such as the X53 and offers them the required support.

Christian Aid Week

■ ON behalf of the Colyton and District Christian Aid Committee, I would like to thank everyone who so generously donated to the recent Christian Aid Week Appeal.

The amount raised from our House to House collection in Colyton and Colyford was £2,730, which with the proceeds of our Coffee Morning and Church collections came in total to £3,816.

Particular thanks must go to our helpers who had the arduous task of collecting from house to house!

These are remarkable amounts considering that Christian Aid Week came hard on the heels of the Nepal Earthquake Appeal and many local people had already given generously to that too.

Our community response will help desperately poor communities around the globe to build a better and brighter future. Thank you everyone!

Great Green jumble

■ THE Crewkerne Greens election team would like to thank everybody who donated to or spent up at the hugely successful jumble sale we held in town on Saturday, June 6th.

Not only did we raise over £250, we recycled many unwanted goods and also managed to support several other local causes.

The town's charity shops were pleased to receive unsold items, and a large selection of books was donated to the library, where hopefully they'll find a new life and be read many more times.

Finding new homes for unwanted goods reduces the pressure on landfill sites.

And everybody loves a bargain, so we hope that everybody went away from the jumble sale with the feeling they're being a little bit more green.

Hospiscare thanks for Ax-pedition

■ ON behalf of Hospiscare Axminster & District Support Group I would like to thank Axminster Tools & Machinery – Ax Pedition Team for all their support on May 31st. We would also like to thank all the cyclists who took part in the event.

Members of our committee were very impressed with how well organised the event was. We appreciate what a lot of hard-work all their team put in to planning this day and was very pleased it went so well.

We really appreciate everyone raising money for Hospiscare as it is such a worthwhile charity and helps patients and their families at a very difficult time. More and more patients are being referred to Hospiscare. The Government contribute just 21% of the running costs so it is important that they receive as much support as possible.

Once again thank you very much to Ax Pedition Team and all those energetic cyclists that took part.

Selfish cyclists

■ WE hear a lot, these days, of cyclists bleating on about how they are feeling bullied and threatened by those ghastly motorists. Maybe so, but here in Honiton it is the norm to see cyclists hurtling along the pavement, without any consideration for pedestrians – I have very little sympathy for these 'two-wheeled twits'.

What little sympathy I did have for them quickly evaporated yesterday. I was driving to Otter Nurseries and after leaving the A30 at Iron Bridge and taking the Ottery turn-off I found myself stuck behind two broad-beamed, lycra-clad women on bikes. For the next two miles they cycled side-by-side, talking incessantly, meandering all over the road, completely oblivious of the fact that there was now a queue of motor vehicles stuck behind them.

Eventually, where the road widened, I gave a gentle toot on my horn and overtook them. On glancing in my rear-view mirror I saw that both these ladies were giving me the 'victory' sign!

There may well be a lot of very responsible cyclists out there. By the same token, there are many irresponsible cyclists who care not a jot for anyone other than themselves.

Splendid service

■ A HUGE 'thank you' to Sidmouth Home Safeguard and EDF Energy Priority Team, who between them sorted out my loss of electricity.

I was awakened by my Home Safeguard alarm going off and when I went to put on my bedside lamp there was no light. I carefully got out of bed and saw there were no lights anywhere except, to my surprise, the street lamps.

Owing to impaired vision I couldn't read the 'loss of power' number in my telephone book, so I pressed my Home Safeguard who read it out to me.

The EDF operator, Kirstine, was so kind and reassuring and as my circuit board can only be reached by steps she told me not to attempt it but would send out an engineer.

He too went the second mile and sorted things out.

The next morning the Priority Team's managing director David telephoned to see if all was well. What splendid service! How lucky we are to have such caring, helpful people who, despite the un-earthly hour, said they were 'only doing their job'.

So an enormous 'thank you' to Sidmouth Home Safeguard, EDF's Kirstine and the engineer from Up-lyme and David, from a most grateful octogenarian.

Petherton Folk Festival 2015

THE 4th Petherton Folk Fest on Saturday 20th June will provide a full day of mainly free entertainment for people of all ages – and nearly all of the dancers, musicians and Morris 'sides' in the programme come from Somerset or other West Country locations. There will also be stalls, food and a craft market and several modestly-priced workshops for those wishing to improve their dance moves or instrumental skills.

The Fest will start at 10am with a procession of Morris sides into Market Square. At the same time, events will be getting underway in most of the other venues, which include St Peter & St Paul's Church and its grounds, The David Hall performing arts centre, The Brewer's Arms pub, The Blake Hall, the yard at the infants' school and the back garden of Burnworthy House residential home, off Hele Lane.

Iain Wilkinson, who was involved with the hugely successful Petherton Folk & Craft Fair that ran from the mid-70s to 1997 and also helped establish the new Folk Fest, will perform the official opening ceremony while Ian Baker, a member of Petherton Arts Trust – which owns and runs The David Hall – will be MC throughout the day.

Highlights of the event for Folk music fans will be a performance in Market Square by The Drystones – the University-age duo who wowed crowds at the Glastonbury Festival in 2013; and, headlining in The David Hall, the Australian Rory Ellis, billed as the 'quintessential alternative country artiste' and so popular at numerous UK festivals that he has moved to live in Devon! The Drystones will close performances on the main stage in Market Square at 6pm while Rory Ellis is billed as the final artiste at the end of an afternoon programme in The David Hall.

At 12 noon, Iain Wilkinson will invite visitors to join in the Clipping of the Church, a tradition which he has worked hard to reintroduce in order to maintain some of the ancient customs that date back to 1231, when South Petherton held its first village fair. Music inside the church will include the English a cappella Folk group, Freshly Ground, and Stanchester Quire.

Throughout the afternoon, fans of Folk music will be able to enjoy about 20 gigs in different locations. They include Willowen, the quirky Indie-Folk trio from Bournemouth who are making their third appearance at Petherton Folk Fest with a gig in The David Hall, and Stampita, five Taunton-based musicians who perform original and traditional songs and tunes on a wide variety of instruments and will be at The Brewer's Arms for the final event of the day, Playing from 9 – 11pm.

Entertainment for children is being organized at several venues, starting at 11am with a Morris dance workshop in the infants' school yard. Many attractions for youngsters will be located in the church grounds and Angel Heart Theatre is booked to give puppet performances – to 'kids of all ages' – in The Blake Hall.

A Laughter Workshop, for children and grown-ups, will be held in the back garden at Burnworthy House residential home, off Hele Lane, from 11 – 11.45am. There will also be arts and crafts for children from 11am till 2pm; Punch & Judy at 12.30 and a puppet show from 3 till 4pm.

"We have aimed to provide an even more extensive programme for all ages for the 4th Petherton Folk Fest and I feel confident that the events we have booked will keep visitors happily occupied throughout the day," said Pete Wheeler, Chairman of the Folk Fest Committee, adding: "We look forward to seeing our regular supporters and, all being well, and increased number of Traditional dance and music fans from further afield."

The full programme for the day is on the web-site www.pethertonfolkfest.org.uk

THE events on Pixie Day are based on a legend, which says that Pixies used to rule Ottery. Then 500 years or so ago, they heard that bells were to be hung in the church. They had already tried to prevent the church being built without success, but bells were the last straw, as Pixies cannot abide the sound of bells. So they did everything in their power to prevent them being cast, without success again. So when the monks who lived in Ottery went to fetch the bells from Exeter, they cast a spell on them as they came close to Ottery, which caused them to carry on towards Sidmouth and the sea.

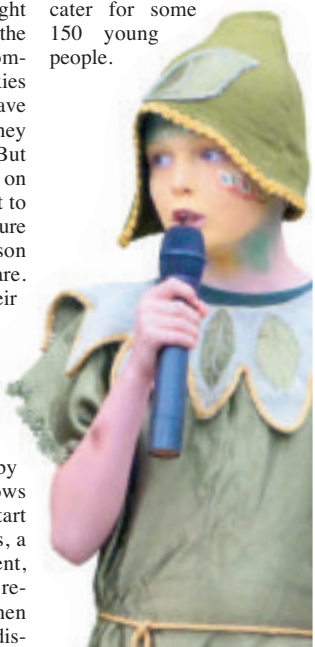

But just as they were about to go over the cliff, one of them stepped on a thistle, which made him shout out 'God bless my soul and Saint Mary'. This happened to be the magic phrase which broke the spell and the bells were brought back to Ottery and hung in the tower. Having failed completely in their aims, the Pixies then went off to live in a cave by the river, where they have lived ever since. But once a year they come out on the Saturday nearest to Midsummer's Day and capture the bellringers and imprison them in a cave in the Square. Luckily, they don't stay their long, as someone remembers the magic phrase which releases them.

This action will take place at about 6:30pm on 21st June, with the parts of the Pixies being played by Brownies, Cubs, Rainbows and Beavers. Events start 2:30pm, with games, stalls, a Pet Show and entertainment, and continues after the re-venge until 10:15pm when there is a firework display.

The fete includes a beer tent and refreshments. The surplus is divided equally between the Guide and Scout Movements in the town, which cater for some 150 young people.

NATIONAL CARE HOME OPEN DAY

CARE HOME OPEN DAY 19TH JUNE 2015 – THE ARTS & VALUING STAFF

FOR the third year running, Care Home Open Day will be taking place, and this year is being held on 19th June 2015, promoting the themes of The Arts and Valuing Staff.

Supported by a group of leading care providers, associations, charities and care regulators, Care Home Open Day aims to reinforce the connections care homes have across their local communities, as well as challenging misconceptions about residential care and showcasing the excellent services that are at the heart of communities across the UK.

To date, Care Home Open Day has proven to be a great success and the event is growing year-on-year, with more care homes signing up to take part each time.

Professor Martin Green OBE, chief executive of Care England, said:

"Care Home Open Day is an important event to participate in. It is a great opportunity for the public to see the range of care services at the heart of their communities and for care homes to establish valuable connections."

Paul Burstow MP, commented:

"Care Home Open Day is a great way of demystifying care. Many people have fears about care homes that are not based on experience. I hope more people than ever will cross the threshold of their local care home and find out what the team are doing to deliver great care."

David Cutler, Director, The Barings Foundation, stated:

"The Baring Foundation has been focusing our arts funding on work in care homes as we believe it has the power to give meaning, purpose and joy to anyone working or living there. We are delighted that this is the theme for this year's Care Home Open Day and would like to encourage everyone to get involved."

NATIONAL CARE HOME OPEN DAY

ABOUT THE OPEN DAY

Care Home Open Day is a UK wide initiative inviting care homes to open their doors to their local communities.

Thousands of care homes across the UK take part each year, welcoming the public and arranging events and activities that help to create lasting links between care home residents and their local communities.

The Beehive is looking for volunteers

BUILDING upon the success of their past year, The Beehive in Honiton is inviting members of the public, who may have some spare time and skills that they are happy to share with their local community centre, to an informal meeting at the centre. They have a great group of friendly volunteers and are looking to expand as a result of the Beehive's growing popularity.

The informal evening on Monday, June 22nd at 7.30pm in the cafe bar is for people to find out what is involved in the running of a busy, thriving, community centre, and a chance to meet some of the team and suss out the diverse range of opportunities and skills that one can learn or bring to the Beehive.

Volunteering should be a two-way process – the volunteer enjoys the task and has rewards in seeing other people enjoying themselves; there is also the sense of achievement in using skills and in working with others. The Beehive is an attractive place in which to spend time and join in the community.

Many people are in employment or have other commitments but there are a variety of volunteering opportunities that can fit around your schedule.

The Beehive's volunteers help in the reception/box office, front of house, stewards, café bar staff, room set-up, technical, admin and publicity. A Duty Manager is available at all times that the volunteers are in the building, ensuring that there is no lone working and there is always someone to ask for advice. Full training is given.

Everyone is very welcome and there are tasks great and small, no commitment necessary but very welcome!

A classic jazz line-up at Arts Centre

Vasilis Xenopoulos

THE Vasilis Xenopoulos Quintet are an extremely well established group featuring a classic line-up, of tenor sax, guitar and Hammond organ. It's a combination that has been used with great success by many top exponents in the past, and one that this band uses to very great effect. Vasilis Xenopoulos plays sax, Bill Mudge is on Hammond, and Nigel Price on guitar. The quintet also features a trumpet and drums, with Steve Fishwick, one of the UK's most impressive younger brass players, and Pete Cater, a leading percussionist from the London scene. This will be an evening of 60s nostalgia and brilliant music - think of Jimmy Smith and "Walk on the wild side".

Saxophonist Vasilis Xenopoulos formed his first Quartet in 2005 and established himself as one of London's up and coming jazz saxophonists. As a jazz musician he has worked with some of the best musicians in the British jazz scene, such as Jim Mullen, Steve Waterman, Alan Barnes, Derek Nash, Bruce Adams, Martin Shaw, Nigel Price, Ray Gelato and many others. He is currently lead tenor in the Steve Taylor Big Band, and in the Ealing based Sound of 17 Big Band. His explosive style means he is in great demand as a saxophone player for popular music and as a session musician.

Steve Fishwick is considered to be one of the best jazz trumpet players ever to come from the UK, and is gaining a global reputation thanks to his flawless technique, and his beautifully flowing, harmonically rich improvisations. Trumpet great Wynton Marsalis recently said about him "Steve has his own style. He plays from the bottom to the top of the horn whilst maintaining the integrity of the chords. I can't think of another trumpet player that can do what he does." Steve has played with most leading jazz musicians such as Sir John Dankworth, Peter King, Mike Carr, Jools Holland and Jamie Cullum. He was named the 2002 British Jazz Awards 'Rising Star'.

The Vasilis Xenopoulos Quintet play at Ilminster Arts Centre at the Meeting Houses on Friday, June 26th at 8pm. Tickets are £16 (pre-show supper £12 at 7pm but must be booked in advance). For more details or to book call 01460 55783 or visit the website at www.themeetinghouse.org.uk

Don't Believe a Word

HE'S widely acknowledged as one of the best writer-performers of comic songs in the country, and the Marine Theatre warmly welcomes Mitch Benn's acclaimed show from last year's Edinburgh Fringe, Don't Believe a Word, on Saturday, June 20th.

Mitch is a stand-up scouse comedian, novelist, radio presenter, TV personality, and science-fiction enthusiast. The satirizing musical writer and performer of BBC Radio 4's The Now Show, and It's Been a Bad Week for BBC Radio 2, debunks myths and exposes nonsense in this national touring show. He believes in taking an evidence-based approach to life. He's a sceptic - 'but don't take my word for it.' He'll try to convince you of the virtues of his philosophy through his wit, charm and of course a few songs (and a rumoured dance routine!). It's a show that'll make you laugh a lot and think a bit.

The Now Show aside, Mitch has recently co-presented with Harry Shearer BBC Radio 2's 'Anatomy Of A Guitar' as well performing 'Mitch Benn Is The 37th Beagle' and presenting 'Spank The Plank' both for BBC Radio 4. An occasional series where Mitch takes his unique and quirky look at a few more rock icons has been commissioned by Radio 4 for 2015.

The Young'uns

An irresistible set from the folk group of the year

THE Young'uns come to Honiton's Beehive on Friday, June 19th, a Teesside trio who have been taking the folk world by storm with a recent five star review in the Guardian and BBC Best Group 2015 folk award alongside other accolades. With their three-part vocal harmonies, sometimes with guitar and accordion, and side-splitting banter this will be a superb evening's entertainment and booking in advance is highly recommended (£8 or £10 on the door).

Colin Irwin of Spiral Earth had the following to say: "Nobody sleeps when The Young'uns are in town. They may have established their fast-growing reputation in the folk world with sublime a cappella harmonies, but the Teesside trio – Sean Cooney, Michael Hughes and David Eagle – are an unlikely force of nature on stage, beguiling audiences with irrepressible humour, bold vocals, gripping story-lines and innate musicality. Describing their gigs as 'absolute chaos', they go on stage without set lists, relying on infallible instinct and their unique rapport with audiences to deliver a killer show.

Their music is rooted fiercely in Teesside – especially, Stockton – where they first started singing together at the local folk club, although they spread their wings on their glorious album, When Our Grandfathers Said No, which includes a stomping French song, 'Pique la Baleine', a gorgeous unaccompanied arrangement of James Taylor's 'You Can Close Your Eyes', some nifty instrumental work, a couple of rollicking shanties and plentiful strong original material from Sean Cooney. 'When Our Grandfathers Said No' is a line from one of his most compelling songs, 'The Battle of Stockton', recalling an incident in 1933 when Oswald Mosely's Black-shirts targeted deprived areas as potential fascist hotbeds and marched over the Tees – to be physically repelled by 2,000 outraged Stockton townsfolk.

LORD'S TAVERNS TEAMS UP WITH THE BARMY ARMY

1 CHARITY. 18 Counties. 28,000 Members. £100,000 of Fundraising.

Leading youth cricket and disability sport charity joins forces with cricket supporters' club to increase the number of sporting chances

The Barmy Army is undertaking its inaugural tour of England and Wales this year, which will include a Cricket match at Axminster Cricket Club, Cloakham Lawn, on June 24th.

Paul Burnham, MD and co-founder of the Barmy Army said "We are delighted to be supporting the Lord's and Lady Taverners, particularly during an Ashes summer and the Barmy Army's 20th Anniversary year".

The match will raise funds for the Lord's Taverners to help in their work supporting children with special needs. Locally, Seaton Tramway was the venue for this year's Fun Day and the Region has also been able to donate sensory room equipment and outdoor play spaces for young people. A Lord's Taverners specially adapted mini bus will be on display at the match.

Axminster Cricket Club and the Lady Taverners have a long association of working together to encourage youngsters to play cricket, whatever their ability, as well as raising funds for the charity. A Lady Taverners Cricket Bag will be presented to an East Devon Girls Cricket Team just before the match.

This will be an exciting Fun event for all the family - not only the match itself, but the Barmy Army's famous trumpeter will be on duty! Come along from 5pm and enjoy the cricket, hog roast/BBQ and a drink in the bar. Everyone is welcome and there's free entry and parking!

First class entertainment at Beer Wurlitzer show

JOHN Mann, one of the South's foremost organist entertainers whose musical career has spanned over sixty years, made a welcome return to Beer on June 13th. He commented: "The Wurlitzer is now amazing to play, so enjoyable and so different from my first show at Beer several years ago."

John cleverly demonstrated the organ's extensive percussion repertoire with a varied programme of medleys of dance music, show tunes and old favourites and also delighted the audience with his skill on the piano. His music was enhanced with visual clips from films and concerts and his amusing rapport with the audience made for a happy afternoon. His programme concluded with a 'Songs of the Sea' singalong which was enjoyed by all.

On Saturday, July 11th, Trevor Bolshaw, internationally acclaimed concert and broadcasting organist and President of the Friends of the Beer Wurlitzer, will be presenting an afternoon of music for all. Shows which start at 2.00pm are held at the Congregational Church, Fore Street, Beer, EX12 3JQ - admittance is £7.00 on the door (which includes interval refreshments) and children under 16 are free. For further information phone 01297 24892 or visit www.beerwurlitzer.org.uk.

International harpist Robin Ward to perform Sidmouth concert

Robin Ward

THE Exeter Recorder Orchestra will be presenting its Summer concert on Saturday, June 20th at 7pm, performing in the Sidmouth Methodist Church conducted by Andrew Collis. As part of the programme, international harpist Robin Ward will be joining them to perform Handel's Harp concerto. He will be performing the concerto on the rarely heard triple strung harp, the type of harp that Handel originally wrote his harp concerto for.

Originally from New Zealand, Robin currently resides in the UK where he regularly performs as a soloist on various types of harp of his own construction, specialising in the playing of the triple-strung harp - A type of harp predominantly used in art music through the 17th and the first half of the 18th Century.

Robin initially learned to play the lever harp, before moving onto the pedal harp, on which he completed a Bachelor of Music at Victoria University of Wellington, under the guidance of the principal harpist of the New Zealand Symphony Orchestra. He then went on to complete a Masters of Music in Performance on the Triple Harp, which is a chromatic instrument with three rows of strings, instead of one, with no pedals or levers. Due to the prohibitive cost of buying a triple harp, Robin took a typical Kiwi approach, and ended up building his own instrument. Later he taught himself how to play it from surviving sources.

The Exeter Recorder Orchestra, which numbers some 30 players, includes instruments ranging in size from the tiny sopranino recorder to the 6 foot tall great bass alongside of the more familiar descant recorder.

The programme will include adoptions of pieces including Gershwin's Summertime, Mendelssohn's Nocturne from 'Midsummer Nights Dream' - the horn solo being played by Shirley Brown, and Peter Warlock's Capriol Suite.

Tickets are available at Paragon Bookshop, Sidmouth at £8 adults £4 under 18.

The Ben Waters Band bring boogie woogie rock 'n' roll to Marine Theatre DESCRIBED by Jools Holland as 'one of my favourite bands', the Marine Theatre excitedly welcomes The Ben Waters Band Rock'n'Roll Piano, with special guests, through its doors on Friday, June 19th.

Jools Holland asked him to perform at his wedding, he performed at a birthday party for Hugh Laurie, and Ben and his band have played at countless prestigious weddings and corporate events all over the world, bringing their own amazing and original version of authentic rock 'n' roll to the party.

Ben and his band have also performed for royalty and have toured world-wide, including Canada, Europe, Scandinavia and the States, where Ben played in the Lincoln Center and on Broadway in New York with the ABC&D of Boogie Woogie. (The A being Axel Zwingenberger; B – Ben Waters; C – Charlie Watts; D – Dave Green).

Ben performed at the Royal Albert Hall on 1st November 2013 alongside Ronnie Wood at the fabulous Blues Fest, and his band were selected by Ray Davies as one of his favourites, when Davies curated the wonderful Meltdown Festival at the Royal Festival Hall 60th Anniversary.

He has had a remarkable apprenticeship, having worked and recorded with many of the legendary greats of the rock 'n' roll generation – The Rolling Stones, Chuck Berry, Jerry Lee Lewis, Shakin' Stevens, Jools Holland, Ray Davies and many others. Ben and Tom played on Broadway, New York last summer at the iconic Les Paul's Iridium Club, and have just returned from a phenomenally successful tour of Singapore, Australia and New Zealand.

RURAL THREE BEDROOM COTTAGE, IN THE HISTORIC TOWN OF COLYTON - £550,000

FORTNAM Smith and Banwell are pleased to be offering to the market Willhayne Cottage, Colyton. Originally converted to residential accommodation in 1948, this is a truly interesting and unique property which has been thoughtfully developed initially from two outbuildings and extended into a third outbuilding in the 1960s.

As such, it retains many character features, including extensive parquet and quarry tiled flooring and wooden panel internal doors. The current vendors have made a number of sympathetic improvements to the property over the 14 years that they have lived there, most notably the addition of a beautiful hardwood 'Amtega' conservatory which includes some lovely wrought iron detailing, cleverly concealed roof blinds and underfloor heating.

The property benefits from oil-fired central heating plus an LPG gas-fired cooking hob and has efficient wooden double glazed windows.

There are also two wood burning stoves, one in each of the main reception rooms.

The grounds of the property extend to approximately 2.5 acres and include a 2-acre field which drains particularly well and has been used in the past as a successful vineyard. There is a double garage with pitched, tiled roof built in the 1990s, a potting shed with log store and good-sized wooden stable and summer house.

Willhayne Cottage is in a beautiful semi-rural location within walking distance of Colyton Town. It is a substantial property which offers generously proportioned accommodation and land suitable for a number of uses. We would recommend viewing at your earliest convenience.

SPOTLIGHT

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Lindy Parry

Podiatrist / Chiropodist

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Bookings can be made by calling 01297 22956.

The Standard for Luxury, Design and Dynamics

THE XJ, Jaguar's all-aluminium luxury saloon, is more desirable than ever.

Subtle changes to the exterior design, accentuated by full LED headlights, add to the XJ's already distinctive looks. Materials such as semi-aniline leather and inlay veneers enhance an interior already considered the most luxurious in the segment, culminating in the new Autobiography model.

Matching this traditional craftsmanship is state-of-the-art technology, including a new infotainment system. InControl Touch Pro offers features such as door-to-door navigation and 1,300W Meridian digital audio system.

The driving experience is better than ever, thanks to a V6 diesel engine which offers more power and torque and less fuel consumption and CO2 emissions, and an electric power-assisted steering system that enhances Jaguar's reputation for unrivalled agility and responsiveness.

"More dynamic and distinctive than ever, we've engineered our flagship saloon to deliver even greater levels of luxury and performance.

"Featuring our new world-class infotainment system, interior materials and finishes which create an even more bespoke feel, and with our higher output, lower emissions diesel engine, the XJ rewards drivers and passengers like no other luxury car."

The new XJ features a larger, more upright grille, while sculpted chrome blades in the outboard air intakes emphasise the car's mature, prestigious character.

The full LED headlights accentuate the 'quad lamp' design feature that Jaguar sporting sedans have made their own. They are further enhanced with active front steer and static bend lamp functions, and auto high beam assist. LED headlights also provide a colour temperature closer to that of daylight than Bi-Xenon lamps, improving visibility and driver comfort, and are also more energy-efficient. Twin 'J-Blade' daytime running lights are a unique feature to XJ, befitting its status in the Jaguar saloon car range. The white light instantly and seamlessly changes to orange when the direction indicator is operated.

The LED rear lights feature a new J-signature tail and position light graphic, making the XJ even more distinctive. The rear bumper now features a gloss black valance and a slender chrome insert. New LED taillights and oval exhaust finishers complete the look.

New Avensis: Prestige, Comfort and Efficiency

▲ Toyota Avensis (2015 – Current)

THE new Toyota Avensis aims to make things easy for the customer, with new style, new engines and innovative technology. Regardless of version or equipment grade, it is designed to be prestigious and trustworthy.

Designed and engineered in Europe and built exclusively in Britain, more than 1,711,800 Avensis across four model generations have appeared on European roads since the original was launched at the end of 1997.

Quality durability and reliability have always been among Avensis's strongest suits, reflected in the current model achieving consistently high QDR ratings and the highest score in last year's J.D. Power Vehicle Ownership Satisfaction Survey in Germany.

Although Avensis has traditionally appealed to private customers, it's the fleet market that easily commands the largest proportion of sales, accounting for 75 per cent of D-segment business in Europe.

STYLING

Both the new Avensis saloon and Touring Sports wagon have a more distinctive and dynamic appearance, generated by a new Energetic Elegance design theme.

Overall vehicle length has been increased by 40mm and at the front there is a strong new look that marks a "second generation" evolution of Toyota's contemporary design language.

The Toyota emblem is set more prominently within a smaller but sharper-styled upper grille. The grille itself has a chrome trim bar which anchors new LED headlamp clusters. These incorporate LED daytime running lights, giving new Avensis an individual illumination signature.

The lower grille has been made significantly larger and it spans a centre bumper section finished in gloss black, reinforcing Avensis's solid front stance. In conjunction with the downward sweep of the new grille, the fog lamp housings have been pushed out to the far edges of the bumper, making the vehicle appear broader.

To the side, a new garnish along the sill creates a strong horizontal emphasis, giving the impression of a lower centre of gravity. The more elegant profile is supported by new alloy wheel designs.

The rear of the vehicle has also been designed to add elegance and impact to the broad road stance. The rear light clusters use LED light guide technology to generate a high-tech lighting signature.

SENSORY QUALITY, HARMONY AND COMFORT

One of Toyota's aims in creating the new Avensis was to guarantee comfort and convenience across the range. The elegant, refined interior makes an important contribution to this goal: sensory quality and NVH have been taken to a higher level and there are new, premium quality trim finishes.

The instrument panel is divided into two sections. The sleek, full-width upper part contains an instrument binnacle with recessed tachometer and speedometer dials either side of a large, 4.2-inch TFT multi-information display (colour display on higher grades, monochrome on Active grade). The lower section houses a centre console that is separated from the transmission tunnel and dominated by an eight-inch full colour touchscreen. A redesigned steering wheel and gear lever complete the driver's cockpit.

Switchgear feel and operation have been improved and sensory quality has been further heightened by harmonising graphics and symbols and providing uniform, blue backlighting.

Satin chrome highlighting on the instrument binnacle, steering wheel, console switchgear, air vents and gear lever presents a crisper, higher quality appearance.

A new range of more appealing interior finishes is available, including combinations of fabric or leather with Alcantara seat upholstery (a first for the Avensis's class) and a new, Dual Ambient light grey colour scheme.

The cabin is further improved with the introduction of a new front seat design, making for more comfortable long-distance travel – a priority for fleet/business customers.

Technology research project to detect, predict and share data on potholes

JAGUAR Land Rover is researching a new connected car technology that will allow a vehicle to identify the location and severity of potholes, broken drains and manhole covers, and then share this data in real-time via the cloud with other vehicles and with road authorities to help them prioritise repairs.

If a car can receive a warning from another vehicle about severe potholes or broken manholes ahead, then drivers would be able to slow down and avoid the danger – or the car could adjust suspension settings to reduce the impact and smooth the ride. This could help reduce the potential for punctures, wheel and vehicle damage as well as road accidents.

Dr Mike Bell, Global Connected Car Director, Jaguar Land Rover, said: “Our MagneRide equipped Range Rover Evoque and Discovery Sport vehicles feature sophisticated sensors that allow the vehicle to profile the road surface under the wheels and identify potholes, raised manholes and broken drain covers. By monitoring the motion of the vehicle and changes in the height of the suspension, the car is able to continuously adjust the vehicle’s suspension characteristics, giving passengers a more comfortable ride over uneven and damaged road surfaces.

“While this gives our customers a more comfortable ride, we think there is a huge opportunity to turn the information from these vehicle sensors into ‘big data’ and share it for the benefit of other road users. This could help prevent billions of pounds of vehicle damage and make road repairs more effective.”

PREDICTING POTHOLES ON THE ROAD TO AUTONOMOUS DRIVING

The next stage of the project at Jaguar Land Rover’s Advanced Research Centre in the UK is to install new road surface sensing technology in the Range Rover Evoque research vehicle, including an advanced forward-facing stereo digital camera.

“At the moment the most accurate data comes from when the car has driven over the pothole or manhole”, added Mike Bell. “So we are also researching how we could improve the measurement and accuracy of pothole detection by scanning the road ahead, so the car could predict how severe they are before the vehicle gets near them.

“Ultimately, sensing the road ahead and assessing hazards is a key building block on our journey to the autonomous car. In the future, we are looking to develop systems that could automatically guide a car around potholes without the car leaving its lane and causing a danger to other drivers. If the pothole hazard was significant enough, safety systems could slow or even stop the car to minimize the impact. This could all help make future autonomous driving a safe and enjoyable reality.”

Added efficiency for Volkswagen’s Passat as BlueMotion models join the range

VOLKSWAGEN is boosting the appeal of its multi-award-winning Passat and Passat Estate ranges with the addition of ultra-efficient BlueMotion variants. Both saloon and Estate models return 76.3 mpg and emit just 95 g/km of carbon dioxide.

Such efficiency is made possible thanks to the installation of a modified version of the Passat’s entry-level 1.6-litre TDI 120 PS engine with SCR, as well as BlueMotion modifications. The engine’s maximum power is produced at 3,600 rpm, with torque of 250 Nm developed at 1,750 rpm. Standstill to 62 mph takes 10.8 seconds, while top speed is 130 mph – slightly greater than for the standard 1.6-litre engine, meaning there is no compromise in performance for the BlueMotion version. In Estate guise, the same is true with 0 to 62 mph in 11 seconds and a top speed of 129 mph exceeding those of the standard 1.6-litre car. The 1.6-litre TDI BlueMotion is available in combination with a six-speed manual gearbox only.

Based on the entry-level S model, all BlueMotion Passat models feature a Post-Collision Braking System, mis-fuelling prevention and Driver Alert, as well as Volkswagen’s 6.5-inch ‘Composition Media’ infotainment system. Stop/Start and battery regeneration systems are also standard on board, while the BlueMotion adds 17-inch ‘Soho’ alloy wheels with super-optimised low rolling resistance tyres, sports suspension (lowered by 15 mm), unique BlueMotion front and rear bumpers and BlueMotion badging and chrome grille highlights.

Prices for the BlueMotion model start at £23,200 RRP OTR for the Passat saloon and rise to £24,750 for the Estate.

Passat and Passat Estate BlueMotion models are available to order now, with first deliveries expected in August. For more details please visit your nearest Volkswagen Retailer or go to www.volkswagen.co.uk.

Clio Renaultsport 220 Trophy

RENAULT today reveals the pricing and specification for the hotly awaited Clio Renaultsport 220 Trophy, the exclusive new flag-bearer of the Clio range which was one of the star attractions of the 2015 Geneva Motor Show.

The 220 Trophy, which will make its UK debut at the Goodwood Festival of Speed from June 25-28, will deliver 220hp for less than £22,000 (£21,780) and is aimed at track-day enthusiasts and drivers who demand cutting-edge performance, handling, style and equipment for road use. Order books are open now, with first UK deliveries expected in August.

At the same time there have been revisions to the Clio Renaultsport 200 models, with the introduction of EU6-compliant engines featuring Stop&Start. Torque, fuel economy and CO2 emissions have all improved, with the result that the cars now attract a lower BIK rating and VED band.

10 per cent power hike for Trophy engine

The Clio Renaultsport 220 Trophy is a numbered special edition model that sits at the top of the Clio Renaultsport range. It features a larger turbocharger and revised mapping compared with the 200 models, boosting the outputs of the 1.6-litre direct-injection turbo engine by 20hp (10 per cent) and 20Nm (8.5 per cent) to 220hp and 260Nm, with a further 20Nm available through the 'Torque Boost' feature in fourth and fifth gears.

There is also a revised air intake and exhaust system to minimise back-pressure losses. The rev limit has been raised to 6,800rpm as opposed to 6,500rpm in the 200 versions, with peak power arriving at 6,050rpm. Maximum torque is available at only 2,000rpm. Boost pressure has been increased from 0.96 bar to 1.03 bar. This all translates into a 0-62mph time of 6.6 seconds on the way to a top speed of 146mph.

This more potent and higher-revving version of the Clio Renaultsport power unit is fully EU6-compliant and features Stop&Start, helping towards excellent fuel economy and emissions figures for such a high-performance car of 47.9mpg on the official NEDC combined cycle and 135g/km.

A further contributor to this is the standard Efficient Dual Clutch (EDC) gearbox, which, for the 220 Trophy, has been substantially recalibrated by the performance experts at Renaultsport. It now delivers up to 50 per cent faster shifts and permits greater flexibility in Sport mode for more comfortable driving in built-up areas. The steering wheel-mounted paddles have been revised with 30 per cent shorter travel in order to provide a more immediate and responsive feeling. The higher rev limit along with new software calibration allows earlier down changes under heavy braking during track use.

The Clio Renaultsport 220 Trophy is fitted with the R.S. Drive system with Normal, Sport and Race settings. Stop&Start is deactivated in Sport and Race modes. R.S. Drive permits multiple downshifts when the appropriate paddle is continuously held and also features Launch Control. In Race mode, the gearchange is a manual-only operation; it will not kickdown or change up at the rev limiter without intervention by the driver.

A lower and stiffer chassis with quicker steering

As befits a car designed for maximum enjoyment on race tracks as well as public roads, the 220 Trophy has firmer and lower suspension and faster steering than other Clio models.

The Trophy setting is lowered by 20mm at the front and 10mm at the rear. To put that into perspective, the Cup chassis on the regular Clio Renaultsport is only 3mm lower than the standard set-up. The dampers of the 220 Trophy are firmer and there are 40 per cent stiffer rear springs coupled to motorsport-derived hydraulic bump stops – a feature carried over from the regular 200. The car also has the R.S. Diff to maintain traction in difficult conditions or extreme high-performance track use.

Rockett (7-18) rips through Exmouth in huge Kilmington victory

Honiton 1st XI v Whimple

IN a top of the table clash Honiton looked to make it four wins in a row but put in one of their worst performances of the season.

Batting first they were blown away for 104 by Phil Hope (4-34) and S Hathaway (3-42). Only Kevin Kelly 34 managed to trouble the scorers.

In reply Whimple lost five wickets in pursuit with Harry Wright taking 3 for 27. M Brown top scored with 27.

Honiton skipper Rob Ingram wasn't pleased, he said: "We showed no fight with our batting, some of the lads need to put a higher price on their wicket and let their bat doing the talking."

Honiton 2nd XI v Bridestowe 2nd XI

THIRD placed Honiton faced 2nd placed Bridestowe in a potentially season-defining contest at Mountbatten Park.

Batting first Honiton looked comfortable at 108-3 with Andy Canniford making 44 and Richard Potter 34.

However the innings disintegrated to 119 all out as the home side recorded three ducks, losing seven wickets for 11 runs.

Phil Tansley (2-15) made early inroads but at 93-4 Bridestowe were firm favourites.

Honiton, however made the most of their strong bowling line-up with Richard Hill tearing through the middle order to take 4-7.

It was Bridestowe's turn to crumble, losing their last six wickets in as many overs as Honiton squeaked home by 13 runs.

Captain Andrew Lapping was pleased in the end, he said: "This was a big win against the best team we have faced so far, we got a great start to our innings, and should of done better, but credit to them they bowled well."

"But the fight we showed in the field to back our bowlers was outstanding. Phil and Andy were unplayable at times, which set the tone and built great pressure, the next three weeks are crucial now to how our season will pan out."

It was a very close match with each team winning two games but Hemyock just took the evening by one point (Chard 22 Hemyock 23).

MERRIOTT SMBC

with Ann Weeks
IN February the Club learned of the sudden death of one of its members, Jackie Mitchell, who also played for Crewkerne SMBC. It was agreed between the two clubs that a shield in her memory should be initiated and played for annually.

Last week, Merriott hosted the inaugural match with invited guests being Jackie's daughter, Wendy Mitchell and husband, as well as Geoff Nixon who is the vice chairman of Somerset SMBA and who helped set up Merriott Club in 1995 as well as Crewkerne in the early part of this century.

The match was played with great intent on both sides, but at the interval the hosts were a long way behind. However, in the second half everything came together and the home team ended victorious by 51-41 including a hot shot.

The trophy was presented to match Captain, Robin de Winter by Wendy. A total of 30 players, and guests enjoyed a light buffet supplied members and friends.

AXMINSTER with David Harris
AXMINSTER have undergone an enjoyable if not successful period of late.

In the Devon League we lost 27-43 away at NORTH TAWTON with a narrow win 14-13 for George Mabon, David Harris & Derek Pheby.

We then enjoyed an excellent 42-30 home win against TIVERTON BOROUGH with a 26-9 win for Tony Cable, David Harris & Doug Looskan.

The men were drawn away to SIDMOUTH in the County Top Club KO Competition - always a difficult fixture - and went down 1-4 with only the pairs team of Steven Apsey & Sid Milburn managing a win.

In the mixed friendlies we were down when rain curtailed play with Morrison Brown, Clayton & Sid Milburn the only trio ahead (17-14).

We then lost at 48-72 home to DUNKESWELL managing only two ties - Barbara Mowatt, John Hill & Brian Clark (15-15) and Morrison Brown, Ken Quick & Margaret Crompton (14-14) before losing 55-70 at Season with a 15-10 win for Morrison Brown, David Harris & Bridgett Hallowed and a 19-19 tie for Howard Keep, Margaret Brown & Doug Looskan.

Our next scheduled game at KINGSTEIGHTON was unfortunately rained off.

Our bad run of friendly defeats continued at CHARMOUTH in the final game of this period with a 46-88 loss with only Joan Quick, David Harris & Ken Quick managing a win (27-15).

On a brighter note Phil White, David Harris & Ann Clayton got through to the next round of the County mixed triples with a win against a Season trio.

Hill returns as coach

HONITON RFC have started their planning for next season and have re-appointed Callum Hill as their player-coach for the 2015/16 campaign.

Having had a previous successful stint at the club, Callum takes over from Jason Hannay who has stepped down due to work commitments but will continue as a player.

Hill takes over having had a season out of rugby and comes back with re-charged batteries and a full commitment to the club.

Honiton's last campaign was a difficult one as they had to come to terms with the loss of several players who had gone to more senior clubs to further their careers.

This season, with few announced departures and the influx of several players from the very successful colts side, Honiton hope to be able to regroup and gain a top half finish this outing.

Joining Hill in the management team are Paul Parrott who moves up from his successful tenure as the colts administration role, and Phil Oaten who has joined the team by agreeing to manage the second string.

Hill has called a players meeting at the club on Tuesday, June 23rd at 7pm when new players are welcome.

Half dozen join Devon League

SIX new clubs were accepted by the Fresha Devon & Exeter League at Friday night's annual general meeting. ASHWATER from West Devon, CRANBROOK, EXMOUTH SPARTANS, MILLWEY RISE from the Perry Street League, POLONIA (Exeter) and STOKE ARMS UNITED (Exeter).

A further nine Reserve teams and third teams were also accepted which has forced the League to bring back its Division Nine.

CHARD TOWN RESERVES won the Bill Rees Memorial Trophy for sportsmanship in Premier Division clubs having recorded an average referees mark of 87.7 out of 100.

As the League is gearing up to apply for Step 7 status for their Premier division next season, a number of tough decisions had to be taken. The University Reserves were relegated to Division One with their three other teams also dropping back a division.

League chairman Mr Roger Spray explained why the decision, taken at the SGM in February had since been rescinded. The original plan was to have two divisions of Reserve teams with Premier Division One and Division Two becoming a first teams only membership.

However after receiving further information from the FA the League have reverted back to last season's format and deferred any such change.

Uplozman surge clear at the top

Pool A

UNBEATEN Uplozman extended their lead at the top of pool A to four points with a 50-36 win over challengers Signs South West.

By half way Uplozman had overcome their deficit to take a 26-25 lead. Mandy Norman had a lively game for the winners whilst Faye Hawkins took the plaudits for SSW.

The other game resulted in a 49-49 draw between Otter Valley and Beer Blazers.

OVD perseverance paid off as they gradually reduced their starting arrears to pull level in the final quarter thanks to good work from Sarah Dyer, with Alex Adkin having a fine game for Beer.

Pool B

HOWDEN Hawks and Hi Q played out a 48-48 draw. Jo Channing played well for Hi Q who set out to chase down their starting deficit.

With Nicki Vile having a fine game for Howden it was tough going for Hi Q and it wasn't until the final quarter they managed to pull level and finished all square.

Both teams are on seven points and realistically only having an outside chance of a top two finish.

The other game of the night saw Sidmouth Toucans Chicks move clear in top spot when they maintained their unbeaten run with a 75-51 win over bottom placed Pixies.

The Chicks had started with a 10-goal lead but they increased this throughout the game to finish with a 75-51 win and put them in a strong position to finish in the promotion places.

Seniors with Rob Grove

The second round of the Seniors Masters competition confirmed what many of us had considered at the outset – that the pre-tournament favourite and the more consistent golfers would rise to the top of the leader board.

In good golfing conditions but with the threat of storms ahead, most of the players were grateful to have finished their round before the rain came and it was good to see that so many finished their game with a full scorecard and avoided the dreaded "nil return".

The ever consistent Tony Strong with yet another net 70 (7) leads the way with Gerry Turner producing a steady 71 (12) coming second from Bob Cook who also scored 71 (24).

At least Bob had the satisfaction of winning the Warren Cup which was played in conjunction with the main competition and is for players of 21 and above handicap.

Tony completed his fine day with the only two of the competition.

There are still 28 players in the competition who could yet wrest the title from the favourite but the signs are ominous and it will be up to them all to contest just the minor placings.

CRR's out in force!

with Paul Masters

WAYNE Loveridge, Louis Worth, Matt Baker, Sarah Smith, Miranda Coleberd and Chan Chant represented CRR in the for the local YEOVILTON 5K series.

Loveridge headed the team home while Worth bettered his 5k PB by seconds against a strong wind. Next to set a PB was Baker while Smith was within seconds of her best.

The next event was the SOUTH DOWNS WAY 100 ULTRA MARATHON.

Maria & Christopher Wadey and Lynn Cunningham set off to Winchester to Run the 100 miles along the SDW to Eastbourne with the target to reach the finish line in Eastbourne within 30 hours.

At 54 miles Maria suffered problems with her knee that reduced her pace so Lynn started to edge ahead to complete the challenge in 25:58m hours while Chris and Maria crossed the line together in 27:42 hours.

Meanwhile Richard Clifton travelled as far west as he could for the EnduranceLife "Classic Quarter" Ultra Marathon along the south Cornish coast.

This 44-mile run started at Lizard Point and then ran along the challenging coastal paths to Land's End, the task for the day was brutally simple: to run non-stop from the Southern-most point of England (Lizard Point), to the western most tip (Land's End). With over 7000 feet of elevation gain along the route pacing was a key element of Richard's run, which he completed in 32nd/267 place and a fantastic 3rd in age category time of 8:40:13.

Bernie Genge and Emma Male were next off the line for CRR's at the LANGPORT LDWA WALKING/RUN FESTIVAL, starting off from Bow Street, Langport.

This marathon route took walkers and runners alike out across the Somerset Levels, Bowden and Ham Hills around Langport. This self-navigation route was a challenge from the off and caused a few issues in the early miles with the CRR's but enjoyment was the winner.

Sunday had CRR's heading off to Yeovilton for the the Inaugural running of the two-lap YEOVIL ROAD MARATHON with Nina Wagstaff, Martin Holley, Jeremy Taylor, Bernie Genge and Paul Masters heading out around the lanes of Yeovilton.

Heading off first was Jeremy Taylor who had completed a 1200-mile cycle trip from Land's End to John O'Grouts on Friday, this began to take its toll later in the race.

Martin Holley who was setting a great pace with his push for a PB, Nina Wagstaff was next running with Paul Masters both pushing hard. At 14 miles Masters had to pull out of the race but Wagstaff steadily moved up the field and with Taylor starting to feel the exertions of his cycle ride Wagstaff passed by and crossed the line first for CRR's and secured second placed Female.

Next across the line was Holley securing a new PB by a full eight minutes, Taylor was just behind and, in his second marathon in two days, and 86th overall Genge came in after yet another well paced run.

Mel & Colin Boarder, Matt Baker, Richard Lovelock, Chan Chant, Miranda Coleberd headed to Martock for the TOTAL BUZZ 10K.

This flat 10k brought in some great results PB's for Lovelock, both Boarder's, Baker, Coleberd. Andy & Dee Mear and Kirsti Ball were amongst the 1500 competitors who ran the Colour run at Hazelgrove school.

This all inclusive run takes in sections of the route that have coloured powder thrown with the aim for runners to show their colours to support the St Margaret's Hospice charity.

CRR's last outing of the weekend saw Kate Beaumont and Julie Bindon off to Thurlbear for The Piddle Plod Trail race, in which two laps of Piddle Wood along forest tracks and country lanes was a real 10k challenge for hill lovers.

Sophie's second salver

EAST Devon Golfer Sophie Keech retained The Astor Salver at The Berkshire Golf Club last week by shooting an impressive -2 and -1 with five birdies in the morning on the red course and 3 birdies on the blue course in the afternoon.

Finally some good weather conditions enabled Sophie to play some solid golf and some fine putting put her in joint first place after the morning round.

In the afternoon she joined at the top of the leaderboard by Dulcie Sverdlhoff but won on countback with the next player three shots behind.

Sophie was delighted to retain her title and play at such a beautiful and challenging course, she said: "As reigning champion the pressure was on and the members remembered me from last year and were following me along, so I was to pleased I played so well".

Sophie also finished in a very respectable 8th place with +6 +1 & Level in the Irish Ladies Stroke play in Southern Ireland.

Sophie made the cut in 15th place and, on her final day on the 18th, Sophie held her pitch shot and ended with an eagle to push her up to 8th place.

Sophie returned home and next day went to Sunningdale for The Critchley Salver where she played on both courses shooting +3 +1 and finished in 10th place.

Next up it was off to Frilford Heath in Oxford where Sophie played 36 holes in horrendous wet and windy conditions shooting +5 & +1 to finish in 7th place.

Sophie's next challenge is the British Ladies Open Matchplay at Portstewart Golf Club in Northern Ireland.
